Invitation

Dear Delegates

It gives us immense pleasure in inviting you to attend the PESICON 2024, the 19th National conference of Paediatric Endoscopic Surgeons of India, to be held from 7th to 10th March 2024 at Galaxy Hospital, Bagh Farzana Agra.

7th March will be Pre Conference Workshops and Conference cum live workshop will be from 8th to 10th March 2024.

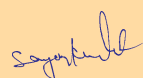

For those of you who have attended or been involved in any of the 8 national conferences We have organised in the past, you would know that scientific deliberations is always our priority at the conference. The best known luminaries in the world of Paediatric endoscopy faculty will enlighten us with their dedicated work and vast experience.

For those of you who will attend a conference for the first time, let us assure you that the scientific programs have been planned to hold the interest of both beginners and the experts. Live operative workshops, discussions over controversial and trending topics, debates and provision to meet the expert are some of the highlights. We promise you an academic event that will enhance your clinical acumen.

We will also make arrangements to give you a glimpse of the rich cultural Mughal heritage of Agra. We had hosted the first PESICON 18 years back and we are really looking forward to host it again.

Your gracious presence and participation is highly solicited for the grand success of PESICON 2024. We hope you return with fond memories. Looking forward to welcome you all.

Sight Seeing

THE TAJ MAHAL : Taj Mahal is not just beautiful art and fine architecture, but a memorial to love and faith. Taj Mahal was built by Shah Jahan in the memory of his beautiful wife Mumtaz Mahal. Taj Mahal is the combination of Indian and Persian architecture. It is a sublime experience of the greatest love story ever told and has been a visual delight for viewers over the ages. Open : Saturday to Thursday (Friday closed)

AGRA FORT : Within a radius of 3 km, on the banks of river Yamuna rises the crescent like Agra Fort. Designed and built by Akbar In 1565 A. D., the fort is surrounded by a 70 foot high wall. It houses the beautiful Pearl Mosque and numerous palaces including the Jahangir Mahal, Diwan-e-Khas, Diwan-e-Aam, Machill Bhawan and Mot Masjid.

ITMAD-UD-DAULAH : The exquisite tomb of Itmad-ud-Daulah on the left bank of Yamuna River was built by NurJahan in memory of her father. This small but elegant structure is built entirely in white marble, a feature that appeared for the first time and was an inspiration for Taj Mahal. The pietra dura or stone inlay work is of highest quality, especially in the blend of the colours of the semi-precious stones.

FATEHPUR SIKRI : 30 km. southwest of Agra lies a deserted sand-stone city, Fatehpur Sikri, the royal capital of Akbar the Great. It was built during 1571 & 1585. It is one of the finest examples of Mughal architectural splendour at its height. Fatehpur Sikri is a concrete expression of the towering personality, the ambition and the exquisite taste of the great king.

SIKANDRA : 12 Km. Begun by Emperor Akbar and completed by his son Jahangir in 1613 A.D., Akbar's tomb in Sikandra is a fusion of Hindu and Muslim art and architecture which, like the Emperor himself, characterized the era.

RADHA SWAMI SAMADHI : 8 km. Head quarters of the Radha Swami religion. Here the holy ashes of the founder of the faith have been preserved. Also place where daily congregational service of satsang is held.

SHRI KRISHNA JANMBHUMI (MATHURA) : is a religious temple located in the crowded city of Mathura. This temple is the birthplace of ancient Hindu god Lord Krishna. It is prison cell belonging to Kamsa where Lord Krishna was born. Sri Krishna Janmbhoomi Temple is the most sought after devout centers in Mathura. Its predominance over the other holy spots are due to the belief that the temple stands on the same place where Lord Krishna was born to Devaki and Vasudev. Numerous articles excavated from the site bear testimony to the legendary story of Sri Krishna's birth.

PREM MANDIR (VRINDAVAN) : is a religious and spiritual complex situated on a 54-acre site on the outskirts of Vrindavan, Mathura, India it is dedicated to Shri Krishna. The temple structure was established by fifth Jagadguru Shri Kripalu Ji Maharaj. The Foundation stone of Prem Mandir was laid on January 2001 by Shri Kripalu Ji Maharaj and the inauguration ceremony took place from 15 February to 17 February 2012. The temple was opened to public on 17 February. The cost was 150 crore rupees ($23 million). The presiding deity are Shri Radha Govind (Radha Krishna) and Shri Sita Ram. A 73,000 square feet, pillar-less, dome shaped satsang hall is being constructed next to Prem Mandir, will accommodate 25,000 people at a time.

BHARATPUR BIRD SANCTUARY : One of the finest bird parks in the world, Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary also known as Keoladeo Ghana National Park is a reserve that offers protection to faunal species as well. Keoladeo, the name derives from an ancient Hindu temple, devoted to Lord Shiva, which stands at the centre of the park. 'Ghana' means dense, referring to the thick forest, which used to cover the area. Nesting indigenous water-birds as well as migratory water birds and waterside birds, this sanctuary is also inhabited by Sambar, Chital, Nilgai and Boar.
